Description:

Review "Brilliant . . . an extraordinary novel . . . The old nomadic trails across the mountains spring into existence."—The New York Times

"Romantic and adventurous . . . [Michener] has a wonderful empathy for the wild and free and an understanding of the reasons behind the kind of cruelty that goes with it."—Newsday

"Michener has done for Afghanistan what . . . his first [book] did for the South Pacific."—The New York Herald Tribune --This text refers to the edition.

From the Inside Flap In this romantic adventure of wild Afghanistan, master storyteller James Michener mixes the allure of the past with the dangers of today. After an impetuous American girl, Ellen Jasper, marries a young Afghan engineer, her parents hear no word from her. Although she wants freedom to do as she wishes, not even she is sure what that means. In the meantime, she is as good as lost in that wild land, perhaps forever....

"An extraordinary novel....Brilliant."
