Description:

Review Karen Vorbeck Williams will be an author to remember! Her premier novel, "My Enemy's Tears, The Witch of Northampton" is spellbinding. Her years of research provide a rich background to this page-turning novel about the life of Mary Bliss Parsons, a young woman taken from her England roots, and transported to New England in the 1600's... -- Kristen Cochrane

From the Publisher "My Enemy's Tears is the story of Mary Parsons, a New England woman accused of witchcraft in a time when being different just may result in a death sentence. The book is well written, and the story will enchant many readers--all the more so because it is based in truth."
